'A Walk Through' - Album Release

I am thrilled to announce the upcoming release of my fifth studio album, 'A Walk Through', on October 25th, 2024. My name is Braelen Addison, I'm a 24 year-old indie artist based in Chico, California.

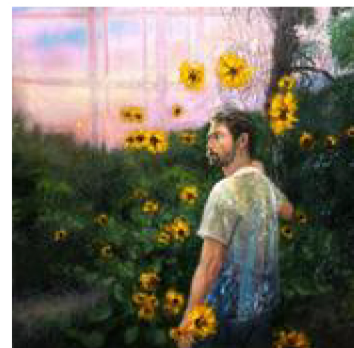

Self-produced and engineered, 'A Walk Through' features a nine song tracklist totaling 40 minutes and 39 seconds of runtime. The album invites you along for a walk, with each song featuring field recordings of footsteps from the trails I trekked every day. The songs are named after the unique locations where I recorded the footsteps.

'A Walk Through' solemnly ruminates on the little moments that make us feel the most, and in those moments of reflection, we remind ourselves that we can still find some stillness despite the pace of life being so relentless. Sitting across the couch with a cup of tea, enjoying a cozy movie, watching the leaves fall. It's okay to take a breather. It's okay to rest. It's okay if you don't even know how to do either. We can still find ourselves in the moment regardless.

Peace finds itself again through alternative folk production centering around classical guitar and piano compositions. As a multi-instrumentalist, I've accompanied this album with lush strings, warm saxophones, soft vintage 70s drums, atmospheric synthesizers and electric pianos, and groovy electric guitars to take you into the world of my walks.
